for the commendable efforts of the Training and Placement team. Mr. Dharurkar joined the meeting online and suggested curriculum modifications for mechanical engineering, which were duly noted by the Head of the Department. Additionally, he proposed incorporating additional training modules to equip students with the latest and most industry-relevant skills

Item No. 3 : Tatwadarshi Magazine presentation

Resolution No.3 : Principal congratulated Prof. S.V. Bhagat and the entire Tatwadarshi team for receiving the second prize in the magazine competition at SGBAU. The faculty advisor of the magazine shared that the magazine offers an opportunity for students to explore their creativity through writing and drawing.

The IQAC coordinator highlighted that the publication of Tatwadarshi, which features sections in English, Hindi, Marathi, and Sanskrit, demonstrates the appropriate integration of the Indian knowledge system, indicating the institute's alignment with NEP 2020. The faculty advisor additionally presented the draft copy of the forthcoming magazine scheduled for publication. The Principal and the House approved the draft for its final publication.

Item No. 4: Industry Institute Interaction

Resolution No.4: The IQAC Coordinator presented a comprehensive report on the institute's engagement with industries, detailing all departmental activities and highlighting connections with various industries, emphasizing their support for academic, research, and innovation initiatives. The Principal suggested planning actions to strengthen industry linkages and improve their outcomes in order to align with the institute's strategic plan. Mr. Dharurkar recommended enhancing MOUs and identifying key areas to establish new relationships with industries.
