

SHRI SANT GAJANAN MAHARAJ COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING, SHEGAON

ANTI-RAGGING COMMITTEE (Session 2018-19)

ANNUAL REPORT

The Anti-Ragging Committee at Shri Sant Gajanan Maharaj College of Engineering (SSGMCE), Shegaon, is dedicated to ensuring a safe and conducive environment for all students. Ragging, in any form, is strictly prohibited on campus, and the committee is committed to its eradication through vigilant monitoring, awareness programs, and strict enforcement of anti-ragging policies.

At the beginning of the session 2019-20, orientation programs were conducted for both new and existing students to create awareness about the consequences of ragging and the policies in place to prevent it. Students were briefed about the legal implications and encouraged to report any instances of ragging promptly. Throughout the year, the committee displayed posters across the campus to spread awareness about the negative effects of ragging. These posters were strategically placed in prominent areas to ensure maximum visibility and impact.

The details of the Anti-Ragging Committee constituted for the academic year 2018-19 were also displayed at all prominent places along with the contact details of all the members of the committee.

The anti-ragging committee members interacted with students to educate them about the psychological and physical consequences of ragging. These interactions also focused on promoting empathy and fostering a culture of respect and understanding among students. The committee undertook regular patrols and monitoring of various areas on campus, including hostels, canteens, and recreational areas, to deter any instances of ragging.

The committee conducted awareness drives periodically to maintain a safe environment within and around the campus.

No case of ragging was reported during the academic year 2018-19.

The Anti-Ragging Committee at SSGMCE, Shegaon, remains steadfast in its commitment to creating a safe and nurturing environment where every student can thrive without fear of harassment or intimidation. Through proactive measures and sustained efforts, we aim to uphold the principles of dignity, respect, and mutual understanding, ensuring a positive educational experience for all members of the college community.

Member Secretary